NOTICE TO CAPITALISTS.
I SHALL Proceed to sell to the highest bidder for cash, at the Court House door in the town of Louisburg, on the 1st Monday in November next, it being the 7th day of the month, some Twenty or Twenty-five Thousand Acres of valuable Land, among which is the well known Portis Gold Mine, lying in Franklin county on the waters of Fishing and Shocco creeks, containing nine hundred thirty-three and one-third (933⅓) acres together with all the Machinery and appurtenances.
Also all the chattle property. This property is so well known that any particular description is deemed unnecessary. The entire tract is rich in Gold, and all the difficulty is a full supply of water. We are informed that an Independent Water Company is now surveying a ditch from Sandy Creek, to supply this and other Mines in the neighborhood with water. When this is done and it will be accomplished in a few weeks, this property will be immensely valuable. The property will be sold for cash and unless parties from a distance come in competition, it must be greatly sacrificed.

A FACT FOR HONEST MEN.

North Carolina is the worst abused State in the Union, with less reason for it. Prior to the war no State had a better criminal record than this. The "old North State" was proverbial everywhere for integrity, harmony and obedience to law. Since the war, the riff raf of that demoralizing state of things, has somewhat changed the complexion of our criminal record, but if the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth had been told of us, it would be seen that even since the war, the amount of crime in the State, has been less in proportion to population, than in any other State of the Union.

This we believe to be literally true, and yet the Radical press and Radical leaders in the State, simply because they have the ear of the government and the press of the North, have stabbed the fair name of the State, most shamelessly and falsely, by their high-wrought charges upon Ku Klux, charging all the crime committed in the State, to that invisible raw-head and bloody-bones affair, when in fact three-fourths of the crime is chargable to other parties.

But our object in this article, is to notice a fact, which will not be denied in any of its parts, which presents the moral aspects of society in North Carolina, in a light not heretofore developed steadily as the truth should have made them.

In the month of June last, a negro man named Wm. Stinson, in the lower part of this County, a young, strong negro, forced himself at night into the dwelling of a respectable widow lady, 63 years of age, and demanded her pocket book; a negro boy about 14 years of age and her daughter, were in the house when he entered. Her daughter discovering his hellish design, made her escape through the window and he drove the boy out. Upon his seizing the old lady, the boy, hearing her cries, ran back into the house, which Stinson discovering, drove him off with a threat which alarmed the boy and he ran off to his mothers. He then dragged the old lady near the road and cruelly raped her, and after accomplishing his purpose, struck her twice on the head with the breech of his gun. As soon as she recovered from the stunning blows, he told her she had more money than he found in the pocket book, and he must have it. He made her go back into the house and tell him where her money was kept. She opened a desk and told him where it was usually kept, and while he was searching, she escaped and hid herself. He then made his escape, before the neighbors to whom the daughter had given the alarm, arrived.—The old lady discovering a light in the house, ventured near enough to see that her neighbors had arrived, came forward and told them her sad story. The next day the negro was arrested in this city and committed to jail after examination, to await his trial. The old lady had one or more sons and daughters. The indignation of her children and neighbors was intense, yet their reverence for the law, led them to suppress their feelings and await the action of the Court.

On Friday last, he was tried in this city before His Honor, Judge Watts, the Superior Court being in session. Being unable to employ counsel, the Judge appointed two able lawyers to defend him. The facts in detail, more fully than we have given them, were proven by the testimony of the lady herself, corroborated by the negro boy and daughter, as far as they knew them and Stinson was fully identified by the parties. Stinson could furnish no rebutting evidence. The case was so clear, the counsel on both sides agreed to submit it without argument. The jury was composed of twelve colored men, who attentively listened to the evidence. The evidence was carefully recapitulated by the Judge, and he gave them a fair and impartial charge. The jury retired and after twenty minutes consultation, returned with a unanimous verdict of guilty. The Judge delivered a very feeling sentence, and fixed Friday the 4th of Nov. next, as the day of his execution.—The Judge in his remarks very properly alluded to this case, as a marked evidence, of the law-abiding character of our people, and expressed his gratification at the evidences of the triumph of law and order in the State over mobocracy.

We beg to call the attention of our Northern exchanges to the foregoing facts. Justice to North Carolina demands that so strong a case, reflecting credit upon the law-abiding character of our people at this juncture, should be made known.

STARTING THE BALL.—The Gold Exchange of New York, at a special meeting on Wednesday, appropriated $3,000 as a contribution to the fund for the benefit of the sufferers by the recent floods in Virginia. The money is to be sent to the care of the Governor of the State.

The census of Harnett county foots up [illegible]

A WORD OF WARNING.

We beg the indulgence of our friends, both personal and political, who count themselves among the opposers of Radicalism and the friends and advocates of the principles which have hitherto guided the party, called the Democratic-Conservative party of North Carolina. We have a word of counsel, prompted by no personal or sinister motive. The party with which we act, is intrinsically and simply, if its measures should give it a name, the North Carolina State party, while the party of our opponents, is emphatically the anti-North Carolina State party. Taking its name however, from the material which composes it, and from the general principles which guide it, it is not inaptly styled, the Democratic-Conservative party. The interests of the State in future, absolutely depend upon the continued triumph and harmony of that party as it is now constituted. Laboring, therefore, with an honest intent to promote the future substantial and moral interests of North Carolina, we are opposed, determinedly opposed, to any and every measure or movement, which could tend in the least to disturb the harmony and solidarity of the party.

We are opposed by a party, which has struck its poisonous fangs at the vitality and life of the State. She is bleeding at every pore, because of the reckless and dangerous stabs, made at her vitals by the Radical party. That party is led by professional demagogical politicians, schooled for years in the principles and practices of trickery, deception and violence, whose sole aim is self promotion and aggrandizement, reckless of what befals the State or her people. No farther proof is needed of the truth of this declaration, than the real history of the party in this State and the history of the men who lead it.

They are not only selfish, deceptive and vindictive, but they are adepts in low diplomacy and trickery. Their only hope of success in future, is the defeat of the Democratic Conservative or North Carolina party, and their only vestige of hope to defeat us, is their hope of success in dividing us.

Some days ago, we alluded to the rumor, which has gone North, that the Radicals of this State, were bent upon our division.—We treated it then as a rumor, and one perfectly Utopian. We still believe that the effort will prove a signal failure. But we are now assured, from sources which we cannot doubt, that leading Radicals now express themselves confidently, of success in their attempts to divide, scatter and destroy us. They have no escape from a change of sentiment among the people as to the real character of Radicalism. They know that under any guise which gives an inkling of its real character, Radicalism is a dead dog in North Carolina. But taking counsel from their great prototype, they will not scruple to assume new phases and forms, in order to effect their design.

There is but one way, by which they can hope to circumvent us, and that is in the future choice we may make of office-bearers. As a general thing, our people are extremely poor. With few exceptions, none of our people have been able to keep their heads well above water since the war, except the Radical office holders and politicians. Immense sums of money have been robbed from the State, and by hook or by crook, a good portion of it, has found its way into their pockets. The poverty of our people therefore, forces many of them to desire office, as a means of sheer support. Others who can live without office or place, impelled by laudable motives, patriotic and personal, manifest a desire for promotion. This, in both cases, is natural. Yet this disposition to secure position, however laudable in itself, is the weak place in our party and in all parties, and the Radical leaders know the weak points of people, if not quite so well as their old Master, yet well enough to seize upon every possible advantage we may unwittingly give them.

The next General Assembly will have several important positions to fill. The greatest wisdom and forecaste will be required to discharge that duty. We cannot act wisely and safely, if we singly or in groups commit ourselves in advance, to any person or measure. Every member of the General Assembly should wait and watch, and determine not to act until the collective wisdom and prudence of the whole body of Democratic Conservative delegates in council assembled, shall have discussed and carefully considered every question. Each member claiming to act with them, should determine to move only in solid column, and should stand shoulder to shoulder to do and dare, whatever shall be determined by the whole, to be best for North Carolina.

REPUBLICAN ELECTIONEERING IN THE SOUTH.—A dispatch from Washington, says the New York Herald of the 6th, states that the condition of Alabama has created "grave uneasiness" at the national capital for some time, and was the subject of consideration in the Cabinet on Tuesday last. The dispatch referred to continues:

As a result, the President has issued orders directing that the State be constituted a separate military district in the Department of the South, under command of General S. W. Crawford. Ten additional companies of troops have also been ordered into the State. General Crawford left for Montgomery to-night, accompanied by Senator Warner, who goes to resume the canvass in the State. Senator Warner has been successful in raising considerable money for campaign purposes, and reports the political prospects in the State to be cheering.

That there should be "grave uneasiness" at Washington on account of the aspect of affairs in the South—and that aspect is really of a happy and encouraging nature—is not at all surprising. But why Alabama, a State that was supposed to have been thoroughly reconstructed, should be singled out for especial attention is somewhat remarkable. This double team of a military commander and a political campaign lecturer perambulating Alabama together, does not speak well for the sagacity of those who have the management of the matter.

CELEBRATION AT ROCKY MOUNT.

The last Tarboro' Southerner contains a lengthy account of the late barbecue and celebration at Rocky Mount. It also publishes the letters of several gentlemen who were compelled to decline the invitation to attend, which we have not space to publish in full, but as they contain sentiments which ought to be put upon record and remembered, we compile the following extracts from them:

Hon. W. H. Battle after excusing his non-attendance, says:

I can assure you, gentlemen, that no man in the State feels more profoundly than I do, the importance of our recent great political victory. When, as one of the counsel for many persons who had been illegally deprived of their liberty by the Governor, I was told by the Chief Justice of the State, that he had exhausted the power of the judiciary in a vain effort to make the writ of habeas corpus effectual for their relief, I felt my heart sink within me; but when I and my associate counsel found the means of deliverance for our clients, through the instrumentality of Judge Brooks, of the United States District Court, and that the good people of North Carolina had arisen in their majesty to vindicate their rights, I felt once more that I was still living in a land of freedom.

Hon. B. F. Moore says: Permit me to assure you, gentlemen, of my most hearty concurrence, that the late political triumph is cause for rejoicing among ourselves and of gratitude to Heaven. I am sure that the people intend it as a rebuke upon the wasteful and corrupting extravagance committed, or willfully permitted, by the public authorities; of a lawless usurpation of forbidden powers, and a reckless defiance of the constitutional guarantees of freemen.

Let no man suppose that this triumph bespeaks evil to the colored race. Their political and civil freedom are secured by an arm that no State or party in a State can assail. If they regard themselves citizens of the State equally liable with the whites to all the burdens of taxation; if they love that hand of freedom which snatches the citizen, unjustly imprisoned by the sword, from the military dungeon, and the military hangman's rope, and gives liberty before the law; and if they are not willing to be deprived of the hard earnings of the sweat of their brow, they too have as much occasion to rejoice over the late triumph as any other portion of our citizens.

Let us, by our moderation and firmness, profit by the opportunity offered, to put the State upon the footing of its old name for honesty and integrity.

Hon. W. N. H. Smith, now of Norfolk, Va., says:

It would afford me great pleasure to meet with you on that occasion, and exchange congratulations on the result of a civil contest by law and liberty against oppression and power, which may well work an era in the history of the Old North State. But having just returned from a tour of professional duty, and as my associate, Judge Biggs, intends to be present, I am constrained to forego the pleasure for myself. Let us now unite more resolutely, to secure for ourselves and children the fruits of this splendid victory, and by our course of moderation and firmness lay deep and lasting the foundation of our future prosperity.

Hon. Thos Bragg says:

Great is the rejoicing of our people in all parts of the State, over our recent signal political victory.

May we have the wisdom and good fortune to successfully reap the fruits of it, and to establish on a firm and enduring basis our rights and liberties as a free people.

Hon. Geo. Davis being on a visit to Asheville in quest of health, regrets that he cannot unite with them in celebrating the Conservative victory.

Gov. Graham says:

The result of no election was ever more creditable to the deliberation and intelligence of the people or inspired a more hopeful confidence in their capacity and zeal to take care of their great interests, public and individual.

"It was no common party race
Jostling by dark intrigue for place."

But the expression of the calm judgment of the grand inquest of electors, without the excitements of an active canvass, in vindication and rebuke of confidence abused, public credit ruined, public and private interests sacrificed, and the dearest and most valuable rights of individuals and of society violated. There was quite sufficient cause for the overthrow of our adversaries, in what was done and tolerated by the Legislature and Executive, months ago; but when to these were added a military invasion by an armed force, in great part from East Tennessee, its seizures and incarceration of many of our best citizens, the very pillars of society in their several neighborhoods; and the announcement was made that the judiciary was impotent for any relief, their defeat became a rout. The opportune moment having arrived in this crisis for the people to speak through the ballot box, they resolved to provide remedies for these evils, if none then existed, by entrusting power to other hands, and demanding new guards for their future security. In no uncertain tones they proclaimed that the military is subordinate to, and must be governed by the civil power and that the privilege of the writ of habeas corpus is not a mere paper declaration, but a substantial right, which shall never be suspended by State authority, in peace or in war; and that the mere issuing of the writ is a mockery, unless its execution be enforced, and the aggrieved and injurest prisoner restored to his liberty. I trust the lesson it inculcates will not be lost upon us; that it will teach us patience in future trials, if any are to fall to our lot; and, above all that there is in this country something more terrible than an army with banners;" and that is the decrees of a free and brave people at the polls.

It would be a great mistake to suppose that our triumph implied any disposition to abridge the present rights of the colored race, or a contravention of the policy of the United States in conferring these rights. The people of this State are wearied of agitation and long for repose. Many reforms will doubtless claim the attention of those invested with authority, but no change, I feel assured, is mediated in these particulars.

ANSWERED.—The Richmond Whig thus answered the query of the Raleigh Standard, as to the reason of the failure of immigrants to come into North Carolina: After having done all in your power to frighten off immigrants by getting up a war, convulsing society, and declaring that life and property are unsafe in North Carolina, it ill becomes you to propound the above enquiry. If immigrants avoid North Carolina, it is because you and your co-workers have frightened them off.

The Board of Commissioners of Bladen county have elected Dr. W. A. Bizzell, county treasurer in place of H. Wilkerson who was elected in August and failed to give his bond.

For the Sentinel.

THE SENATORIAL QUESTION.

More depends upon the proper selection of a Senator now, than will probably ever occur again. The Senator should be one of acknowledged ability and influence. If, in making the choice, we select those who can take the test oath, the selection will be limited to a small class. If, from those who have had their disabilities removed, the class will be larger, but, if we disregard the question of disabilities, we have the largest class.

I take it, that Congress has settled the rule, to seat those who have been elected. Certainly Congress has not refused to remove the disabilities of any thus far elected to Congress from North Carolina. The exclusions have been relative to offices here at home. From the several cases from North Carolina, Shober and others, is it not reasonable to presume that Congress will remove disabilities whenever the State demands it, in order that her service may be properly performed? Is it unreasonable for a State thus to demand the removal of disabilities? Can the State ask the removal of disabilities in any other manner? For example, Gov. Graham files his petition to have his disabilities removed. He does it as an individual. He does it to the end that he personally may hold some office, if it were tendered. His petition is recommended by many as individuals! Congress might say, "we see no reason to do this thing as a private favor to Gov. Graham;" but when Gov. Graham appears at the door of the Senate, as a Senator from North Carolina, the case is reversed. He files his petition for removal of disabilities; it is recommended by the sovereign State of North Carolina, for the advancement of her public service. Then there is a distinction between the manner of applying for removal of disabilities. In the one it is a private and personal act, for private and personal reasons; in the other, a public act for public purposes.

I do not believe that Congress will refuse to seat any person who may be elected Senator.

I do not desire to be understood, as expressing any preference. I think however, the question of disabilities should not enter into the matter, certainly not until Congress has laid down the rule plainly and explicitly, that none from North Carolina can take seats unless their disabilities had been removed previous to their election.

I think the rule as settled by Congress relative to North Carolina, is, that when one is elected to that body, they will remove his disabilities and allow him to take a seat.

LUCIUS.

RUMORED CHANGES IN THE CABINET.

It is stated that the Cabinet is to be reorganized. Messrs. Fish, Cox and Robeson withdrawing for reasons entirely personal, and rumor has it that Ben Wade will succeed Cox and General Walbridge will succeed one of the others—probably Fish. General Walbridge, no doubt, will perform the duties of either office with zeal and ability. As for Ben Wade, it would be simply a shame to tuy him in the office of the Interior Department. His stuff is of that stern, aggressive material that will cause too much agitation among the agricultural fossils in that pastoral department. He would inexorably entange the dusty details of the Patent Office or the Land Offices in less than a week. He would fit about as nicely into them as a fire in a haystack or a bombshell in church. He would have been a treasure in the State Department at one time. His ultimatum for settling the Alabama claims, "pay or fight," tickled the popular ear prodigiously at the time he uttered it, and as events have since shown that England is as chary about doling the one thing as the other, probably his policy was an excellent one to follow. In the Cuban business too, he displayed a hearty Americanism that was refreshing; but whether his fiery temper would suit the musty operation of the State Department at the present time is a matter of doubt. The place or Wade—for the old veteran of the Republican party ought to have a place somewhere under the Republican administration—is in the Navy Department. Under the ten years Rip Van Winkleism in that department our ships and fleets have gone to rot like the old fire-lock of the Dutch burgomen, and it needs the young blood of Ol. Ben Wade to burnish them up again. He cannot be too fiery or progressive here. Mental bomb-shell as he is, he could not blow up our present naval system too high; but we can warrant that he would at least blow out some of the cobwebs in the bureau and knock off some of the barnacles on the fleet.—*N. Opening day at MRS. GETTINGER'S, Tuesday October 11th. Her friends and customers are respectfully invited.

FOUND, on Fayetteville street, on Saturday, a gold breastpin, which the owner can hear of by enquiring at this office.

BUCKETS.—We were shown at the store of Messrs. Saunders and Monie, some days ago, samples of water buckets manufactured by Hutchesson & Bishop, of Newbern, which is a credit to the manufacturers and to the manufacturing enterprise of the State.—These buckets are made of cedar and are brass hooped, and in price and workmanship will compare favorably with any we have ever seen of Northern manufacture.

We are told the establishment of these gentlemen is very extensive, and all their work is done by machinery run by steam. They manufacture all kinds of wooden vessels for domestic use in quantities to meet any demands likely to be made on them.—We would advise any of our readers in want of this kind of goods to examine those offered by Messrs. Saunders & Monie.

SPECIAL PREMIUM.—An enterprising gentleman and friend of the State Agricultural Society and the ladies, authorizes the Executive Committee to offer a special premium of $10 for the best specimen of embroidery exhibited at the State Fair, a special Committee will be appointed to award it.

THE UTLEY COTTON PRESS, manufactured by Mr Thomas H. Briggs of this city, seem to be in demand among the cotton farmers of the country. We have seen several on wagons, during the last few days, going out into the country. The excellence of this press is attested by the favor it receives from those who have seen it operate.

THE HENDERSON FAIR.—On to-morrow, (Tuesday, the 11th,) the Henderson Fair will open. Are none of our citizens going down? We have not heard many speaking of going, yet we have no doubt that several will go from Raleigh and from points between Raleigh and Henderson if the running of the trains will permit. But the present schedule will not give our citizens time enough at the Fair. If the Company would change the running of the trains so as to leave Raleigh immediately on the arrival of the Western train, and then change the time of leaving Henderson until just time to connect with the same train in the evening, there would many more go down than will go under the present arrangement. There has been no announcement, however, that we have heard of, of such a change.

TEMPERATURE OF RALEIGH.—The following statement, furnished us by a friend, will show the comparative range of the thermometer, at Raleigh, for the months of July, August and September, 1869 and for the same months of the present year, and may be taken as a fair average of the years generally:

	July 1869.	July 1870.
Maximum,	13 and 16, 100,	1, 13, and 28, 92
Minimum,	23rd, 69,	9th, 63
Mean,	79 3	77 1
	August 1869.	August 1870.
Maximum,	21st and 24th, 96,	20th, 90
Minimum,	8th, 53,	23rd, 57
Mean,	74 3	73
	Sept. 1869.	Sept. 1870.
Maximum,	22nd and 23rd, 89,	4th, 83
Minimum,	28th and 29th, 44,	7, and 20, 54
Mean,	65 3	68 3.

WM. NATHANIEL HAWORTH returned to England two months ago. He had been at work at the R. & G. Railroad shops at Raleigh; so the letter cannot be delivered to him.

The efforts of the citizens of Robeson county to arrest the depredades of that county are likely to prove successful. They are known to be in a swamp known as Long Branch, and a company of 150 men, white and colored, are picketed around the place.

Oysters are beginning to come in plentifully in the Newbern and Wilmington markets since the cool change in the weather.

The District Conference for Wilmington district of the Methodist Church is now in session in Wilmington.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

The report of the Committee on the record of the Mecklenburg Presbytery. After some little debate the report was adopted.

Rev. Mr. Miller gave notice of an appeal to the General Assembly.

Rev. Mr. Singleton made a report from the Treasurer in regard to assessments, which report was adopted.

Rev. Mr. Smith, of Greensboro', the Agent, then submitted a report which was received, and the resolutions accompanying the report were adopted.

The Committee on Bills and Overtures reported unfavorably upon the proposition to transfer a portion of the Orange Presbytery to that of Wilmington.

The report was received and postponed until to-morrow.

A report from the same Committee in regard to the boundary lines of the Orange and Wilmington Presbyteries, was offered, amended and adopted.

After some further business the Synod adjourned until to-morrow at half past 9 o'clock.

MORNING SESSION—THIRD DAY.
SATURDAY, Oct. 8.

The Synod was called to order at half past 9 o'clock.

The session was opened with prayer by Moderator Stanfield.

The clerk called the roll of the various Presbyteries.

Rev. Mr. Wilson, of the Synod of South Carolina, being present, was invited to sit as a corresponding member.

Minutes of yesterday's proceedings were read and approved.

SPECIAL ORDER.

Report of the Agent of Foreign Missions, by Rev. Mr. Johnson, the Agent, was read and accepted.

Rev. Dr. Leighton Wilson then addressed the Synod upon the subject of Foreign Missions, giving some interesting sketches of the labors of various Missionaries in different countries. The resolutions accompanying the Agent's report were, after some little debate, adopted.

Letters of excuse for non-attendance upon the Synod from Rev. Messrs. E. Hines and Robt. H. Chapman, were read and their excuses sustained.

Rev. Mr. Atkinson, from the special Committee, appointed to consider the religious facilities which can be extended to emigrants coming to this country, submitted a report. [This report is in the shape of a letter, addressed to R. Kingsland, Esq., in response to inquiries made by him of Rev. Joseph Atkinson.]

The matter elicited much interest, and many members made remarks commendatory of the report, and urged the necessity of taking immediate steps to influence emigrants of a thrifty and moral class to come among us to live, by giving a flat contradiction to the false reports that have circulated in regard to the South.

After an animated debate of some length the whole matter was re committed, in order that a document properly framed and covering the whole ground, might be prepared for publication in both this country and Europe.

The hour of 11 o'clock having been set for the discussion of the proposition for a Relief Fund for the benefit of the families of Ministers, the Rev. Dr. Wilson proceeded to address the Synod upon the matter.

Rev. Mr. Smith offered a resolution in regard to Sabbath Schools, Sabbath School publications and authorizing the appointment of an agent. The resolution was adopted and Rev. Mr. Vass was appointed Agent.

Gorrell, Greensboro; Dr. E. Hutchinson, Charlotte; Alexander Sprunt, Wilmington; B. Fuller, Fayetteville; A. T. Summey, Asheville and W. C. Kerr, Raleigh.

Rev. Mr. Vass offered a resolution of thanks to the citizens of Raleigh for the hospitality extended to the members of the Synod &c. &c. The resolution was adopted.

On motion of Rev. Mr. Atkinson it was agreed to accept the invitation to visit the Insane Asylum this afternoon at half past 2 P. M.

After the transaction of some further business, the Synod adjourned.

IMPORTANT TO ALL WHO VALUE THEIR SIGHT.

CONCAVE CRYSTAL CONVEX LENSES

THE SIGHT OF THE AGED ASSISTED, THE WEAK STRENGTHENED AND THE PERFECT PRESERVED.

The Celebrated Concave Convex Crystal Spectacles, and Eye Glasses Manufactured by the

PHILADELPHIA OPTICAL INSTITUTE,

HAVE now been a long time before the public, and the rapid and increased demand for them, combined with the universal acknowledgment of their clearness and vision and ease to the eye, shows plainly that they are superior to any other glasses in the market.

The advantages claimed for the Concave Convex Crystal Glasses are the following:

The Lenses are ground of the best material pure and hard, and made only for optical purposes, they are therefore not liable to get scratched or dim.

They confer a brilliancy and distinctness of vision not found in any other glass.

They can be used equally well by day or candle light without tiring or fatiguing the eyes.

They are ground mathematically true in the concave convex mirror, according to the philosophy of nature, and shape of corner of the eye, therefore assisting nature only instead of forcing it.

That the lenses are centered correct into the frames.

They can be used longer than any other glasses without changing to a higher power.

The frames are made strong and durable by experienced workmen and warranted to give satisfaction.

With a view to meet the increased demand for our celebrated Spectacles we have appointed an agent for this neighborhood, as stated below, who has received all needful instructions, and will, in all difficult cases, have the assistance and consultation of a practical Optician from the Institute here.

TELEGRAPHIC.

Saturday Evening Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—Extraordinary session of the Cabinet to-day. Fish submitted a draft of a proclamation which was approved and will be issued to-day or to-morrow, in effect, prohibiting the use of our harbors by armed vessels of the belligerents, as points of observation or menace. In other words to prevent a virtual blockade of our ports by armed vessels, and also forbidding the use of our Ports as depots for supplying vessels of war and munition to belligerents.

OHIO.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 8.—Dr. W. H. Jones, a prominent physician, was shot and killed by Jas. Gallentine, for an alleged infringement upon Gallentine's marital rights.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 8.—The name of the Convention was changed from "Southern" to "National" by a unanimous vote. [Applause.] The Convention meets in Baltimore next year. The Convention adjourned sine die.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Oct 8.—The Herald's special Berlin dispatch says that with the fall of Strasburg, Tout and the communication with Paris a Monarchy, the Prussian faction will be changed. Avoiding the forts the Prussians will now march upon the large towns direct.

FOREIGN.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—The Italian government repudiates the design of re-annexing Nice and Savoy.

Sharp fighting was reported yesterday in the department of the Vosages between the Prussians, nine thousand strong and half that number of French, who were deficient in artillery. Night ended the conflict. The French retained their positions which the Germans attempted to carry. Gen. Dupre, commanding the French, was slightly wounded.

The Examiner appeals to Powers to prevent the bombardment of Paris.

Skirmishing has commenced before New Brunswick. George Saunders writes from Paris, that Paris is good for 60 days siege.

The Pall Mall Gazette's correspondent says the same. Another dispatch says that Paris is now at the mercy of Prussian guns on the heights of Villejuif. There are no Prussians in the department of Anabe. The Prussians again threaten Geora.

Burnside writes from Paris that the people are calm, and that the city has the usual appearance. He had an interview with Favre who was hourly expecting a visit from Bismarck. Two Frenchmen were caught cutting the telegraph and shot by the Prussians.

Great surprise and regret is expressed at the Prussian Embassy at the shipment of arms from the United States for France.

TOURS, Oct. 8.—The government announces Cherry advices from all quarters of France. The army re-organization is proceeding rapidly. It is reported that Gambetta recently left Paris in a balloon and landed safely outside of the Prussian lines.

The troops have all left; their destination is a secret.

The Pontifical Zouaves to come here, will form a corps of forty-six thousand strong.—Forty thousand Italian volunteers arrives at Chambery. Burnside is expected here.

MARSEILLES, Oct. 8.—Garibaldi is here.

SAARBRUCK, Oct. 5.—The Prussians' heavy batteries opened on the northern defences of Metz. The French replied vigorously. The bombardment lasted two hours.

DUBLIN, Oct. 8.—Arch Bishop Culling, has issued a Pastoral letter sympathizing with France, and protesting against the Italian outrages at home.

PARIS, Oct 3.—The Strasburg statue was decorated yesterday. The Tuileries is a crowded camp. The defeat of the sortie at Meudon created consternation. There has been a few encounters at night between organized ruffians and the troops. Should further reverses occur, it is feared that the dangerous class will inaugurate a terrible convulsion.

PARIS, Oct. 4.—Troops lined the streets upon announcement yesterday of the surrender of Strasburg and Toul.

Gen. Burnside and Paul Forbes were arrested with a letter to Jules Favre from Bismarck. The Prussians fail to plant batteries and erect redoubts at night. The electric lights expose them to the fire from the forts. Americans will leave Paris with Washburne.

Saturday Night Dispatches.

WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON Oct. 8.—Gen. Sherman returns on Tuesday. The neutrality proclamation regarding armed vessels was issued this afternoon.

VIRGINIA.

RICHMOND Oct. 8.—The Conservative Congressional Convention for the third District met here to-day. Gen. Wm. H. T. Lee presiding.—Gen. John H. Cox, of Chesterfield, was nominated over Col. Albert Ordway, late of the United States Army. The vote stood Cox 70th, Ordway 65th.

FOREIGN.

TOURS, Oct. 8.—The Prussians have attacked New Brisach. The cannonade was sharp; the being dangerously vigorously.

The arrondissement of Mayence has chosen Count de Paris, General Cochu and Rattazzi as deputies. The Constituent Assembly, which will convene the Grand Cross of the Legion of Honor. It is reported to-day that the Government will be obliged to quit Tours after the election as no place and no house here will be large enough for the Constituent Assembly. Probably the capital will be at Bordeaux. Some Journals announce the probability of the elections being deferred.

Journals here believe Napoleon to be the author of the Wilhelmshohe manifesto, notwithstanding he pretends to deny it. The denial is prompted because the document is unfavorably received.

A letter from Paris has the following: "The Mobiles from Brittany are christian heroes, and have the moral courage before the combat to kneel and pray to receive a blessing from the Priest." As a sign of the times the writer adds: "The people do not sneer or laugh at this."

The fortification is increasing. Volunteers are rapidly swelling the ranks of the two armies.

The Prussians seem determined to advance into Normandy. The people of that province are sending their grain and cattle further South and are placing every obstacle in the way of the invaders.

The Papal troops and the Garibaldians number 6,000, and form the nucleus of a new army.

The Prefect of the Department of Aisne telegraphs from St Quentin at midnight that the Prussians are within 3 leagues, and it is expected that they will attack at daylight.

BERLIN, Oct. 8.—The "Official Journal" denies any correspondence between King William and Napoleon since on the 30th.—Von Zalkinson revokes the serial prohibiting Democratic meetings, but no exacts police supervision of any meeting tending to embolden France to decide reasonable terms of peace. The Prussians have organized night patrols to prevent lawlessness and robbery around Paris and the adjacent roads.

LONDON, Oct 8.—The Manchester Guardian has a special announcing that the bombardment will commence early next week and will be preceded by a formal summons to surrender.

It is thought that Prussia will not oppose the convocation of the French Constituent Assembly. Railroads eastward of Paris are run day and night, bringing up Prussian siege guns. A train was thrown from the track near Vitry, and four Frenchmen, living in the vicinity, were arrested, charged with loosening the rails.

The Journal de Brutels is responsible for the story of a negotiation now pending between the German government and Napoleon, backed by Russia. Its object being to prevent the establishment of the French Republic.

CHALONS, Oct 8.—Chavetti, of the Pontifical Zouaves came for volunteers. He says no wishes for a well disciplined corps to be named the "Volunteers de Ouest." He says that the Zouaves shall be the soul of devotion and honor. Chavetti leaves to-day three companies to the front.

The news from Lyons is excellent and preparations are making for a strenuous defence. France-Tireurs from Bordeaux passed through for the front to-day. A well armed body of 2,000 Garribaldians arrived in France, commanded by Frappoli, who is to command a larger force. The details of the battle near Pithiviers, show that the Prussians lost 6 000 castle which they had gathered from all parts and were ready to drive to the army investing Paris. This success has animated the Franc-tireurs, who are coming up on all sides.

ROUEN, Oct. 8.—Several French speculators were arrested for sending supplies to the invaders.

ST. QUENTIN, Oct. 7.—The enemy seems abandoning his course thither to-day. He is moving upon Soissons, which place will make a heroic defence.

FOREIGN.

The war in Europe has caused a great scarceness in Millinery goods and yet Masters new store on Fayetteville street opposite Tuckers continues to receive great varieties of the finest quality and latest styles at New York prices.

The great number of orders received from all parts of the State and the liberal patronage of the LADIES OF RALEIGH, has been truly encouraging to this new establishment, for which the undersigned returns many thanks, and promises to continue the usual promptness in filling orders, and an earnest effort to please all.

Bridal Bonnets, flats, Wreaths, Veils, &c always ready or made to order.

PAIN KILLER PERRY DAVIS' PROVIDENCE R. I.

THE PAIN KILLER.

This celebrated medicine has won a deservedly high reputation as an alleviator of pain and a preserver of health. It has become a household remedy, from the fact that it gives immediate and permanent relief. It is a purely vegetable preparation, made from the best and purest materials, safe to keep and to use in every family. It is recommended by physicians and persons of all classes, and to-day, after a public trial of thirty years—the average life of man—it stands unrivalled and uncontrolled, spreading its usefulness over the wide world. Its large and increasing sale affords positive evidence of its enduring fame. We do not deem it necessary to say much in its favor as one small bottle will do more to convince you of its efficacy than all the advertisements in the world. Give it one fair trial and you would not be without it for ten times its cost.

Directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all Druggists.

Price 25 cts., 50 cts., and $1 per bottle.

MR. CHAS. PRATT,

Sir:—The 10 cases of Astral Oil purchased from you a few days since were in the warehouse when the fire occurred, and strange to say although the house was burned to the ground—came out of the fire almost unharmed, the wood cases were of course burned off and several of the top cans melted on top. But there was no explosion and the Oil in the cans did not burn.

This morning before anything was disturbed we had a Photograph taken of the ruins showing the Oil as it remained after the fire was put out.

Respectfully,

THE MOST VIGOROUS AND PROGRESSIVE COMPANY IN THE WORLD.

The Equitable

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY OF THE UNITED STATES

120 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

BURROUGHS & SPRINGS,
GENERAL AGENTS,
CHARLOTTE, N. C.

TWENTY-ONE REASONS FOR PREFERRING THIS COMPANY TO ALL OTHERS.

1. Its cash assets are upwards of $13,000 000.00 and constantly increasing.
2. None of this is made up of promissory notes as in many Companies.
3. Its cash income per annum is over $5 000,000.00 and steadily growing larger.
4. None of this is composed of the notes-of-hand of policy-holders, as the case in many companies.
5. It has paid to widows and orphans, and other claimants under policies on deceased members, about $4 000 000.
6. Such payments are made in cash, and not partly in cancelled notes, as is the case in many companies.
7. No deductions are made from the face of a policy for premium notes when it becomes a claim, as is the case in all Note Companies.
8. The sum of $3,500,000, and upwards, in cash divided among policy-holders, (this included the dividend for the present year), as profits of the business.
9. All the profits of the business are annually divided among the insured. Equitably, instead of being wholly or partially distributed among the stockholders, as is the case in all "Mixed" and "Proprietary" Companies.
10. Dividends are invariably available as cash in payment of premiums.
11. The dividends are made from the start and not postponed until after the lapse of several years, as in many Companies.
12. The Society deals equitably with its policy-holders.
13. The Equitable has made more progress since its organization than any other Life Company in the world.
14. Its risks have been so carefully selected and its dealing so equitable, that it has never been obliged to contest the payment of a claim at law.
15. The modes of applying dividends are more numerous and more advantageous than those of any other company in the world.
16. It issues all the popular styles of policy, including "Ten Year Non-Forfeiting" and "Endowment policies."
17. The amount of new business during the year ending "December 1, 1869, was $51,021,341.00.
18. Its policies average larger in amount than those of any other company, making that equitable select the Equitable for purposes of investment.
19. The profits of the business are apportioned to the assured on the "Contribution Plan," which is conceded to be the only equitable mode of division, and not by the mode adopted by many companies, which is grossly unjust to a large proportion of the policy-holders.
20. It is as liberal in the conduct of its business as is consistent with safety to the assured, and does not sacrifice proper caution to an ambition to increase the nominal amount of its business as is the case with many new companies.
21. It is the favorite company in the United States, as is shown by its new business for last year, being nearly $13,000 000 greater than any other company.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜ is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

RALEIGH, N. C.

SUCCEEDS HIS FATHER IN THE AGENCY OF THE

NATIONAL LIFE INSURANCE CO., U. S. A.

For the Central and Northern Counties in NORTH CAROLINA.

The NATIONAL, under the management of his father, P. F. Pescud, Sr., secured very many warm friends who obtained policies for large amounts, and the fact that it has issued upwards of

10,000 POLICIES,

and nearly doubled its immense Capital of $1,000,000 in about two years, speaks more for its wonderful popularity than any language at my command. The rates being based on the Stock Plan, and when contrasted with Mutual Cash rates, are so much lower, that a certain and handsome dividend is secured from the date of the Policy.

I will be gratified to take applications from my friends and all wanting Policies, and shall want many active and reliable Agents, in the fields assigned me.

FOR THE IMPROVED

"UTLEY COTTON PRESS."

THE "UTLEY PRESS" So well known, and which gave entire satisfaction last season, can be obtained of me at Raleigh, or my Agents, Messrs. Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern, with its improvements.

Price $175.00.

This invention of power, whereby all friction is overcome, its simplicity, economy and durability, astonishes all who see it; and the more so, that a power so simple should have remained so long unappropriated. The strain is wholly borne by the Bed Plate, Follower Block, and two 1¼ inch square iron bars, which is capable of sustaining a strain of 190,000 lbs. Thus giving much more strength than is required. WITH THIS PRESS TWO MEN CAN PACK A BALE OF COTTON WITH EASE IN EIGHT MINUTES WEIGHING FROM 400 to 550 lbs.

One man can do the work, only requiring longer time.

It occupies a very small space, and can be so placed as to receive the lint direct from the Gin or Lint Room, as may be desired. Thus doing away with baskets, and frequent handling of the lint.

It is light in weight, can be taken down or put up in 30 minutes and transported on a two Horse Wagon.

I believe it unequalled by any Press for power, convenience and durability.

Press complete—Depth Cotton Box 8 feet ; Size Bale 4½ feet x 2½x2½ feet ; wt. Bale 400 to 550 lbs.

THOS. H. BRIGGS.

MR. THOMAS H. BRIGGS: Dear Sir:—Yours of 13th instant inquiring as to the merits of the Utley Cotton Press" is to hand, and in reply I would say that I have tried other Presses and consider the pain upon which the Utley Press works cheaper, simpler and more durable than any I have met with.

No "Deferred Dividends" or "Tontine Premiums" as an inducement to new business, but reference is made to the average amount, paid on each surrendered policy as shown by New York Insurance Reports, 1869, in evidence of having paid larger surrender values, than has been given under a maximum "Definite Cash Surrender Value." Death losses have not occurred, out of several Hundred Policies in this State, which fact must establish the better ability of the Company, to pay larger dividends than Companies having an excessive mortality, the result of a selection of bad risks. "Premium Dividends are not declared, but Dividends are given from the actual surplus in accordance with the Company's Charter. POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important SAFEGUARD. It will be found in the DAOOKLYN LIFE.
